

Queen Anne's County

ECONOMIC & TOURISM DEVELOPMENT

Career Development & Workforce Training

Youth Apprenticeship Snapshot

Benefits for Businesses:

Build your workforce
Develop a pipeline of highly skilled workers
Make your workplace safe
Plan for employee succession

Benefits for the Youth Apprentice::

Earn while you learn
Get a head start on employment experience
Discover / confirm career goals
Become more confident

If you are a business in QAC that is interested in offering a youth apprenticeship, you will want to contact us to discuss the process & opportunities.

Learn More

- DLLR Youth Apprenticeship Homepage. Provides links specific to what is involved with establishing a program, requirements, success stories, and other helpful information and contacts.
<https://www.dllr.state.md.us/employment/appr/youthappr.shtml>
- Youth Apprenticeship Brochure. Explains how an employer becomes eligible.
<https://www.dllr.state.md.us/employment/appr/youthapprbrochure.pdf>
- Employer Application. This online application is very brief and simple to complete. This initial application will go directly to Bob Zimmerhoff, who will contact the employer directly. <https://www.doit.state.md.us/selectsurvey/EligibleEmployer#>

If you choose to go forward with the process to apply for youth apprenticeship approval, or to even just get more information, you can:

- Contact MD Dept. of Labor Apprenticeship Navigator, Bob Zimmerhoff directly at robert.zimmerhoff@maryland.gov. Share with him that Connie Dean gave you his contact information.
- Contact us so we can assist you. We will ask Bob Zimmerhoff to contact you.
- Or simply complete the Youth Apprenticeship Eligible Employer Application.

Connie Dean

Career Technology Liaison

cdean@qac.org | 443-786-8895

WHERE SHORE LIVING BEGINS