

NEW!

CENTREVILLE BUSINESS SUPPORT GRANT

2 ways to participate!

FREE Business Resiliency Workshop
Plus Technical Support

The Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development has awarded Centreville Main Street a new grant to support businesses throughout Centreville!

Technical Services

Businesses can request a variety of FREE technical services, such as 90-minute business leader coaching sessions, 1-hour HR/staffing consultations, website audits, social media training, and graphic design & photography/videography services. To receive a technical services request form, contact Carol D'Agostino at mainstreet@townofcentreville.org or (410) 758-1180, ext. 17. We'll match businesses with contractors on a first-come, first-serve basis until all available services are taken.

Business Resiliency Workshop (In-Person & Virtual): Succeeding in the New Normal

Monday, April 25th, 11:30am-1pm | Liberty Building, 107 N Liberty St.

Join us for Succeeding in the New Normal, a free workshop for businesses that will bring together local, regional and national speakers who will share what they are hearing in their respective fields, respond to your questions, and offer best practices for moving ahead. Lunch included for in-person workshop. Register for the workshop using the links below.

In-Person Workshop: CentrevilleMDBizEvent.eventbrite.com | Virtual: VirtualCentrevilleMDBizEvent.eventbrite.com

OUR PANELISTS

Dale Walls

Entrepreneur and Business Owner, Founder of Lions Guide, a former Marine Sergeant and leadership coach

Kimberly Prescott

Founder and President of Prescott HR, Inc. Her primary area of expertise is Human Resources/Employment Law Compliance and Employee Relations.

Megan MacDonald

Chief Strategy Officer at Hello Alice, a free online platform that helps small businesses launch and grow

For more information: Contact Carol D'Agostino at mainstreet@townofcentreville.org or (410) 758-1180, ext. 17.

POWERED BY:

